

Employee logs in with credentials or creates new employee id

JWT Authentication checks user to DB

If the employee has a badge number then they can add infractions to drivers

Employee makes API call to either check drivers or add new driver

Employee adds driver info and infraction info to be added to the infraction table

Once employee is done, they log out

